

Solix, Inc. Named a 2026 NJBIZ Best Places to Work Honoree

Parsippany, NJ – July 10, 2026 – Solix, Inc. (Solix) is proud to announce that it has been recognized as a 2026 NJBIZ Best Places to Work honoree, a distinction awarded to organizations that demonstrate excellence in workplace culture, employee engagement, professional development, and overall employee satisfaction.

The recognition is based on an evaluation of company practices and benefits, combined with confidential employee feedback gathered through an independent survey process.

This honor is a testament to the dedication of the people who make Solix a great place to work every day. As an organization committed to helping connect people to essential programs and services, Solix understands that its success begins with its employees.

“At Solix, our people are at the heart of everything we do,” said Eric Seguin, President & CEO. “Being recognized as a Best Places to Work honoree is especially meaningful because it is influenced by employee feedback. This award reflects the culture we have built together—one grounded in collaboration, innovation, respect, and a shared commitment to making a positive impact.”

The NJBIZ Best Places to Work program recognizes organizations that go beyond traditional workplace expectations by fostering environments where employees can thrive both professionally and personally. The program evaluates company policies, practices, benefits, and culture while also capturing employees' perspectives on leadership, communication, engagement, and overall experience.

Solix extends its sincere thanks to all employees whose contributions made this recognition possible and looks forward to continuing to create opportunities for people to grow, collaborate, and make a lasting impact.
